Annie

Get Your Gun

"Anyway, you're the best shot in the whole world."

"Yes, but you can't get a man with a gun!"

How can shy, awkward Annie Oakley, the backwoods "shot," win Frank Butler, the handsome carefree sharpshooter with Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show?

The solution makes this exciting play a long-time public favorite. "For v e r v e and buoyancy unslackening, there has seldom if ever been a show like it," wrote the critic of the New York World Telegram.

You'll see colorful scenes crowded with Indians and side-show artists, and outdoor shooting matches where Annie challenges the great Frank Butler!

A large cast, with original costumes and appropriate music, and the perfect setting of the beautiful outdoor Forest Theatre will make "Annie Get Your Gun" one of the most delightful plays you have ever seen.

THE MOUNTAINEER PLAYERS

The Mountaineers is an organization whose members are outdoor fanciers, and Mountaineer activities include mountain climbing, skiing, hiking, folk dancing and many more. The PLAYERS are Mountaineers who present annually an outdoor play in the Forest Theatre during the season when the wild rhododendrons are in bloom. Plays are produced solely for your enjoyment and any profits underwrite future performances.

FOREST THEATRE

The Forest Theatre is situated in a 160 acre rhododendron and virgin timber reserve and is a beautiful, unique setting for an outdoor play. Following a forest path bordered with hundreds of wild rhododendrons in profuse bloom, the playgoer reaches the theater, a natural amphitheatre in a rustic glade. Giant firs rise above the stage forming a living backdrop and cedar bark covered with moss forms the wings. A row of ferns serves as footlights. The Forest Theatre is one of the oldest outdoor theaters in the nation. A colorful play presented in this delightful natural setting affords an experience you will long remember.
