"Donegal Fair"

An Afternoon of Irish Folk Comedy

THE PLAY

Irish folk lore is full of wit, charm and drama and the source of many great plays and colorful characters. The show to be presented this year in the Forest Theater is DONEGAL FAIR, an amusing glance at the characters, the saints and sinners of the Irish countryside.

Yeats, Synge, Gregory, O'Casey and many others have achieved theatrical greatness with their one-act Irish comedies. At DONEGAL FAIR you will see three of these famous plays as well as many colorful scenes of County Donegal. The Mountaineer Players have produced "HYACINTH HALVEY," "POT OF BROTH" and "SPREADING THE NEWS" to furnish the dramatic comedy of the show. These delightful plays joined with folk songs and dances of the "Ould Sod," promise you a most entertaining afternoon in a setting that will bring you close to the Irish countryside.

THE MOUNTAINEER PLAYERS

The Mountaineers is an organization whose members are outdoor fanciers, and Mountaineer activities include mountain climbing, skiing, hiking, folk dancing and many more. The PLAYERS are Mountaineers who present annually an outdoor play in the Forest Theater during the season when the wild rhododendrons are in bloom. Plays are produced solely for your enjoyment and any profits underwrite future performances.

THE FOREST THEATER

The Forest Theater is situated in a 160-acre rhododendron and virgin timber reserve and is a beautiful, unique setting for an outdoor play. Following a forest path bordered with hundreds of wild rhododendrons in profuse bloom, the playgoer reaches the theater, a natural amphitheater in a rustic glade. Giant firs rise above the stage forming a living backdrop and cedar bark covered with moss forms the wings. A row of ferns serves as footlights. The Forest Theater is one of the oldest outdoor theaters in the nation. A colorful play presented in this delightful natural setting affords an experience you will long remember.

For comfort, wear a good pair of walking shoes. Don't let the weather keep you away! Unsettled or cloudy mornings usually promise a fine afternoon at this season of the year. (Play goes on regardless!) Bring your camera for flowers and play pictures. Use the cheap and convenient bus transportation method.
