the musical comedy delight -*

38th ANNUAL PRODUCTION

Forest Theatre

Bremerton - Seabeck Road

2 p.m. May 31 - June 6, 7, 13, 14, 1964

The Play

Will Phileas Fogg make it? Around the World in 80 Days — incredible! It is England 1872 and with a twenty thousand Pound bet in the balance, our hero must not falter. Especially since Inspector Fix of Scotland Yard and his sister Fanny are in hot pursuit. And of course Passepartout, the French valet, is along for the ride . . . and the girls! Here is the perfect musical for all ages, based on the popular book by Jules Verne.

A huge Mountaineer cast creates this mad dash around the World for you, with every form of transportation you can imagine. Special scenery, costumes and dances will add to the catchy melodies, promising you a pleasant afternoon in the unique beauty of the Forest Theatre.

Trail to the theater opens at 1 p.m. with a musical concert, performance starts 2 p.m.

The Mountaineer Players

The Mountaineers is an organization dedicated to "explore, study, preserve, and enjoy the natural beauty of the Northwest." The beauty of the Mountaineer forest reserve near Bremerton seemed to beg for an outdoor presentation, and in 1923 a group of Mountaineers known as the PLAYERS formed to present the first production. The tradition is now carried on annually in the Forest Theatre during the season when the wild rhododendrons are in bloom.

Play Admission

Adults $1, Children (under 12 years) 60 cents, Students 60 cents on Saturdays only. Advance tickets are for sale at the Bon Marche in Seattle, Tacoma, Northgate, Everett and Bellingham. In Bremerton at the Brown Music Company and in Bellevue at Bell, Book and Candle.

Suggestions

Bring picnic lunch, eat in the Rhododendron Park above the Theatre. Coffee, pop, ice cream and hot dogs are available. Bring robes and cushions for the terraced earth seats of the Theatre. Dress casually; wear a good pair of walking shoes. You have several blocks of forest trail from the parking area to the Theatre. Don't let the weather keep you away! Unsettled or cloudy mornings usually promise a fine afternoon at this season of the year. (Play goes on regardless!) Bring your camera and out-of-town guests; they will especially appreciate this unique outing.

Forest Theatre

Forest Theatre is situated in a 160-acre wild rhododendron and virgin timber reserve, making it one of the world's most beautiful settings for an outdoor play. Following a forest path bordered with hundreds of wild rhododendrons, the playgoer reaches the natural amphitheater in a rustic glade. A colorful musical presented in this enchanting natural setting affords an experience you will long remember.
