

The Mountaineer's
Forest Theatre

40th Season - 1966

The WIZARD of OZ

May 29,30 June 4,5, 11,12 2 p.m.
- June 4, 6 p. m. -

"The Wizard of Oz"

Come and meet those perennial favorites Dorothy Gale, the Scarecrow, Tin-man and the cowardly Lion plus the good and bad witches, the Munchkins and the Wizard of Oz.

See this storybook show in a natural outdoor setting complete with the yellow brick road. Hear Dorothy sing "Over The Rainbow" and the chorus join in "Ding Dong, the Wicked Witch is Dead." A cast of 85. Directed by Earl Kelly.

The Mountaineer Players

This is the 40th play presented by the Players, a committee of The Mountaineers Club of Seattle. The Mountaineers Club was organized in 1906 to "explore, study, preserve and enjoy the natural beauty of the Northwest."

The Rhododendron Preserve near Bremerton with its amphitheatre provides a perfect setting for plays and musicals. The first play was presented in 1923 and by tradition performances are presented annually during the season when the wild rhododendrons are in bloom.

The Forest Theatre & Rhododendron Preserve

Forest Theatre is situated in a 160-acre wild rhododendron and virgin timber reserve, making it one of the world's most beautiful settings for an outdoor play. Following a forest path bordered with hundreds of wild rhododendrons, the playgoer reaches the natural amphitheater in a rustic glade. A colorful play presented in this enchanted natural setting affords an experience you will long remember.

Suggestions

Bring picnic lunch, eat in the Rhododendron Park above the Theatre. Coffee, pop, ice cream and hot dogs are available. Bring robes and cushions for the terraced earth seats of the Theatre. Dress casually; wear a good pair of walking shoes. You have several blocks of forest trail from the parking area to the Theatre. Don't let the weather keep you away! Unsettled or cloudy mornings usually promise a fine afternoon at this season of the year. (Play goes on regardless!) Bring your camera and out-of-town guests; they will especially appreciate this unique outing.
