BRIGADOON

Music by Frederick Loewe

Book and Lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner

EARL KELLY – Director

BOB YOUNG – Musical Director

Prologue

Near the end of the overture, when the house curtain is up, the music fades and a singing chorus is heard . . .

CHORUS:

Once in the Highlands, the Highlands of Scotland
Deep in the night on a murky brae;
There in the Highlands, the Highlands of Scotland,
Two weary hunters lost their way.

The music fades gradually and the play begins ——

Act I

Scene I A forest in the Highlands of Scotland About five in the morning.

Scene II The Square of Brigadoon -- MacConnachy Square
About nine in the morning.

Scene III The Brockie Woods -- Just past noon.

Scene IV Outside the MacLaren House -- Four in the afternoon

Scene V Outside the House of Mr. Lundie -- Immediately following

Scene VI Outside the Kirk of Brigadoon -- Dusk of that day.

– INTERMISSION –

Act II

Scene I A forest near the borders of Brigadoon --
Immediately following.

Scene II On the way from the forest -- A few minutes later.

Scene III The glen -- A short while later.

Scene IV A Long Island country club --
Late afternoon, four months later.

Scene V The forest in the Highlands -- Three nights later.

This is the 48th play presented by the Mountaineer Players, a committee of the Mountaineers of Seattle. This organization was started in 1906 to "explore, study, preserve and enjoy the natural beauty of the Northwest." The Forest Theatre is located in a 160 acre wild rhododendron reserve, making it one of the world's most beautiful settings for an outdoor play.
