Forest Theatre productions started in 1923, produced by the Mountaineer Players, a committee of The Mountaineers. A 180-acre forest and wild-rhododendron preserve surrounds the theater. Plays are given annually on the last Sunday in May, the following Monday (Memorial Day Holiday) and the first two weekends in June, to coincide with the blooming of the wild rhododendrons.

The Mountaineers was organized in 1906 to "explore, study, preserve and enjoy the natural beauty of the Northwest."

Based on the works of the Roman Playwright PLAUTUS. Originally produced on Broadway by Harold S. Prince. Presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International. Please do not smoke on trails or in the Theatre. Please do not pick blossoms. Please carry all trash to containers at the top of the trail. Your cooperation will insure coming generations the beauty of this Preserve exactly as you have enjoyed it.
