Director's Notes: Across the Generations

State Fair, a modern fable about everlasting truths, is set at the 1946 Iowa State Fair (the first fair since 1941 due to World War II). Wayne and Margy's adventures at the fair are representative of the trial and error nature of finding a mate for life. The fair, a wonderland of chance, provides a fabulous backdrop to the youngsters' search for love. This search is something that is experienced by every generation; just as the anticipation and experience of the fair is repeated every year. Abel and Melissa, as parents, provide a picture of life when the right mate is found. Love, between two people or a family, can be a constant that helps us through life's unpredictable events. It's amazing how such a simple play can capture so much of the essence of life. ~ Craig Schieber

Production Staff Profiles

Greg Brown has happily been doing sound for the Mountaineer Players since 1973. His other credits include Civic Light Opera, Pecadillo Players, and Upstage Productions.

Guy Caridi has been choreographing and performing dance since 1991. He is one of the major swing dance teachers, promoters and enthusiasts in the Puget Sound area. He has competed, coached and judged at national competitions, and has taught and performed internationally.

Mary Duckering has been involved with the Players in many capacities since 1970 and costumed many of the shows in the 1970s and 1980s. After a 10-year break, Mary costumed Music Man last year, and looks forward to continuous involvement with the Players in the years to come.

Jamie & Christy Gordon -- are exhausted! (Ed: working tirelessly on the renovation of Kitsap Cabin) Their short-term goal is to enjoy two consecutive days, at home - together. Other than that, they can't seem to drag themselves away from this magical place. It is truly a part of who they are.

Gwen Guidici'has been a fan of the Forest Theater since 1987 but never imagined she would be part of the company. Besides teaching piano lessons Gwen loves to spend her time painting, writing poetry, and composing music.

Mark Jensen, in addition to his work on sets, enjoys donating his talents to the Kitsap Cabin restoration project and the Red Feather Development Group. He also had fun making the soda used in the show, bottling it in some of his vintage Coca-Cola collection.

Nancy Estill is co-producing her fifth show for the Mountaineer Players. Her deep and abiding love of the Forest Theatre draws her back each spring.

Eric Lindvall started his theatre career at the Forest Theatre when seven years old as a towns-kid in Brigadoon. He was Fyedka in Fiddler on the Roof. This is his fourth year helping with sound.

Gala Lindvall is co-producing (with her good friend, Nancy) her fifth show for the Mountaineer Players. She loves helping to "pull it all together" while working with such a stellar production crew and watching her family perform on stage. Her other fun job is selling Longaberger Baskets.

Stacey Morigeau is proud to be back for a fifth straight year. Other shows this year have included True West and California Suite for Riptide Theater. Stacey is producing the Mountaineer Players' upcoming fall production of Twelfth Night and is pleased to be heard on stage this year.

Matt Nill's hobbies include books, chess, ping pong, and tacos. He works at a computer company, teaches trumpet lessons on the side, and plays trumpet for musical theater every chance he gets.

Daniel Scalise's career in theatre began in the fifth grade when he got the acting bug after portraying Mr. Bumble in his school's production of Oliver. This is his first year doing sound.

Craig Schieber's Players' credits include directing Music Man & Midsummer Night's Dream (he enjoys multi-aged casts), choreographing Sound of Music and performing in Seven Brides and Little Mary Sunshine. By day, Craig administers the M.Ed. program at City University.

Chris Stanley teaches model making at the Art Institute of Seattle. He portrayed the Rabbi in Fiddler on the Roof and created the sets for Sound of Music, Secret Garden and The Music Man.

Debbie Valenta is ecstatic to be performing as pianist/synthesizer player in the best State Fair in our state! A piano teacher for over 25 years, she revels in this opportunity to demonstrate to her students a fun and challenging way to use their musical talent.

Stephen Wall has been a featured soloist for Seattle Opera and other performing companies in the Pacific Northwest since 1980. He prepared the chorus and soloists for the Mountaineers Players' productions of The Secret Garden and The Music Man.

"THEATRE IN THE WILD", a pictorial history of the Mountaineers' Forest Theatre, is for sale at the Information Booth. Read about the rich history of the theater and the plays dating back to 1923.
