Anthony Dreessen is a Senior at the Univ. of Washington who has been involved in theatre his entire life and is looking forward to his 3rd performance with the Mountaineers Players. His favorite roles include the Beast/Prince in Beauty and the Beast (here) and Dickon in *The Secret Garden (*Driftwood).

Jerry Dreessen is blessed with a household of actors. There's always a play, rehearsal, or audition going on. When not on stage, he runs a family practice in Mountlake Terrace as a chiropractor. Production Staff Bios

Ken Adkins is a mathematics student at the University of Washington. This is his first time ever accompanying a musical and he is enjoying this experience at the Kitsap Forest Theater.

Guy Caridi has been choreographing and performing dance since 1991, and for the Players since 2002. He's competed, coached & judged at national dance competitions & taught and performed internationally. He is Artistic Director for Savoy Swing Club and has choreographed numerous shows for local schools.

Marcus Hickerson had a brief stint on stage in The Sound of Music in order to spend time with his daughter. This summer he is grateful to the KFT for taking pity on him and giving him a job that only involves singing and dancing when no one is looking.

Olivia Hickerson is happy to spend her 4th summer at KFT. She loves playing for theater, is a member of the local swing band "Rude and Unprofessional", and teaches. She is thrilled to once again collaborate with some pretty amazing musicians for Into the Woods this summer.

Rachel Jones is thrilled to be stage managing one of her favorite shows at one of her favorite places. To be able to play her dream role of a menacing voice off stage is just icing on the cake. She is a student at WSU and can often be seen with a camera in hand; check out her photos at RachelJPhotos.com.

Barbara Klingberg, after 6 years of costuming for Ovation Musical Theater (Bainbridge), is enjoying revisiting Into the Woods in such a different venue. Nearly 1/4 of the costumes are new for this production. She is thrilled to reprise her role as Granny. Barbara designed costumes for BPA's Chicago this spring.

Kelsey Jobst is very excited to finally get to be a part of a Kitsap Forest Theater production. She will graduate from CWU in December with a BM in Music Education and a minor in Musical Theatre Ed.

Amy Beth Lindvall is excited to be back at KFT after performing in 14 shows here including the summer productions as Fran (High Button Shoes) and Titania (Midsummer Nights Dream) and music directing Godspell last year. She is currently a Teaching Artist at Seattle Children's Theatre. Thanks to Peter!

Gala Lindvall is producing her 18th show for the Mountaineers Players. Her love of this amazing theater keeps her coming back every year. Thanks to a stellar production staff and cast!

Craig Schieber has directed, choreographed and acted in the NW for over 30 years. His favorite shows are ones with multiage casts; wisdom is shared across generations in both directions. Thanks to Lee Ann Hittenberger for inspiration. Craig also directs the Teacher Certification Programs at City U of Seattle.

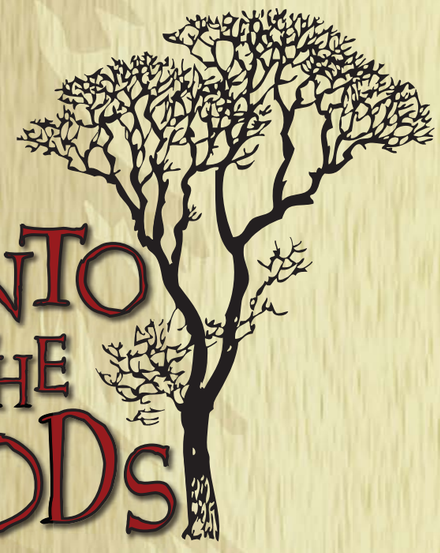

Chris Stanley is a model maker, educator & inventor. He has been designing and building sets and props for the Players since the 1998 production of Fiddler on the Roof when he played the Rabbi. Chris is currently an instructor in the Industrial Design Department at the Art Institute of Seattle.

Director's Notes

If this is the first time for you to see this show, you may feel overwhelmed by everything being thrown at you. There are 5 fairy tales being told all at once.

The music is complex with rich harmonies, unique rhythms, and clever lyrics. And though the musical is built around simple fairy tales, the moral lessons being told will stretch your brain as you make connections between what the characters are saying and doing and experiences in your own life.

I suggest you allow yourself to go along for the wild ride that this musical provides and feel content to catch what you can. And then, like so many others have, come back into the woods again to see what you missed the first time.
