Director's Notes

One of the joys of art is the conversation that it can stimulate after the event. A good play gives more than just the 2½ hours it takes to tell the story. Continuing joy and value from the experience comes after the show as you savor the work of the performers and the thoughtful questions the show raises in your mind about the essence of life. As you watch the show today, think about questions and issues this show raises in your mind and on the way home, why not talk about them with your family or friends?

Here are two questions to start your discussion:

How does our cast with actors of such cultural origins as English, Italian, Japanese, Polish, African, Hispanic, Russian, and more, represent America's response to the intolerance of Tzarist Russia?

Think of traditions you hold in your life and the richness they add to your life. What would be the impact of you letting go of them?

Based on the hit movie, Footloose bursts onto the live stage with exhilarating results. The heartfelt story told with Oscar and Tony-nominated songs is of a father longing for the son he lost and of a young man aching for the father who walked out on him.

Footloose celebrates the wisdom of listening to young people and guiding them with a warm heart and an open mind. Fun for all ages. Make plans now to come back this summer!
